Introduction

History & Background

In 1911, in response to public demand, a Board was initiated by an Act of the Legislature to monitor films intended for public exhibition in the province. The jurisdiction was expanded by the Theatres Act, (1930) to include the licensing and monitoring of theatres for public safety, as well as the licensing of projectionists and film exchanges.

Although formal standards for film "acceptability" were established in 1921, they were not updated and by 1936 they were abandoned.

The Federal Supreme Court decision in the MacNeil Case (1978) placed the emphasis on "community standards" as criteria for public exhibition. This was closely followed by media and political highlighting of Board procedures in 1980 emphasizing the need for public accountability. These events initiated a Board appraisal of its approach to film review and resulted in a series of changes in the application of the censorship function.

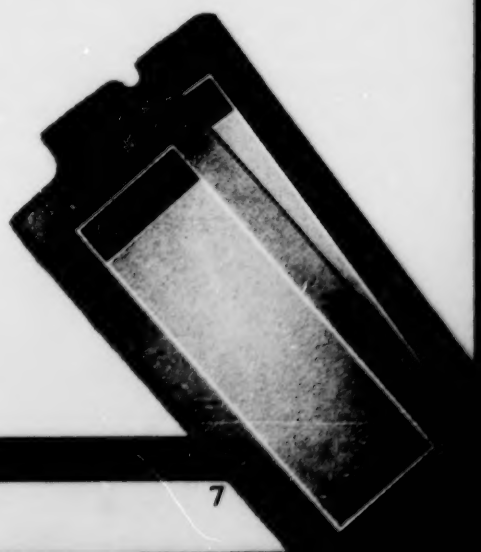
- a policy of regular community contact was adopted;
- guidelines for classifications and film content appropriate for public exhibition were explored, developed and published.
- formal procedures for screening and reporting were introduced;
- public accessibility to all Board decisions was established;
- a system of rotating members was implemented.

In 1981, recommended changes to the Theatres Act and Regulations included:

- an expanded classification system for films;
- a rotating Board of Censors;
- the deregulation of exceptional theatre building requirements to conform to the Ontario Building Code Provisions;
- a more equitable fee structure.

Present Administration

At present, emphasis is placed on the establishment and ongoing assessment of clear and widely accepted standards for film exhibition. Management procedures have been altered to ensure more complete and accurate information on films, security in records retention and increased efficiency in information retrieval. A continuing program of restraint will be exercised in the areas of personnel management, licensing and office systems. Responsibility for the monitoring of theatre safety and Theatres Act requirements has been resumed by Theatres Branch with the re-establishment of two inspector positions.



Current Objectives

The objectives of Theatres Branch are to assure safety in public theatres, maintain standards for film projectionists, protect children from unsuitable film content and ensure that all films on public screens are consistent with current community standards.

To achieve these ends, the Branch licences and monitors all theatres in the province for observance of legislated safety requirements, tests and licences projectionists and licences projection equipment in public venues other than theatres. Through the Ontario Board of Film Censors it screens, classifies and approves all standard 16mm, 8mm and videotape films intended for public exhibition on the basis of reflected values and concerns of the Ontario public.

The program has effected an accident-free record in Ontario theatres. Projectionists are consistently well-qualified and supportive of all requirements under the Theatres Act. Film distributors and exhibitors co-operate and assist in the maintaining of film exhibition standards in Ontario.

While a significant percentage of Branch activities involves theatre safety and the licensing function, it is the role of the Board of Film Censors which appears to be the most highlighted and least understood. The Board is composed of rotating members who, through continual community liaison, study the concerns and values of the Ontario public to determine criteria for films considered appropriate for specific age groups and to define content which is identified by the majority as unacceptable for public screens.

These criteria were the bases for the development of formal guidelines which were applied with reasonable flexibility in the classification and censorship of 1,913 films in 1982-83.

In keeping with the philosophy of open decision-making and public accountability, Board Members participated regularly in private and public meetings and media interviews to explain the role of the Board and to assess specific areas of public concern. Our Branch also responded to all public enquiries into specific decisions, including full information on any eliminations requested. Guidelines and procedures for film classification and censorship have been distributed to theatres, libraries, schools and community associations throughout the province.

Current Issues

A new wave of conservatism has emerged with regard to traditional values in public entertainment standards, particularly in the area of material available to children. Changing public attitudes are carefully monitored and reflected in Board decisions on classification and censorship.

The advent of pay television has posed potential economic problems for independent theatre owners which may be relieved by a policy of quarterly licensing for extreme cases. Although jurisdiction over local pay t.v. has not been resolved, some companies have indicated a desire to adopt Theatres Branch criteria for programming.

The monitoring of videotapes now being exhibited as entertainment in bars and lounges has posed a problem both to Theatres Branch and to law enforcement officers. The return of Theatre Inspection responsibility to this Branch has greatly assisted in effective control.

The explosion of the Home Video Market has led to concern by many commercial suppliers that they not transgress Criminal Code provisions or the level of community standards. In the absence of clear guidelines from any other source, our Board is frequently consulted with respect to specific classifications.

Growing public concern (provincial as well as international) about crimes of violence and child exploitation has been intensified by new sociological research into the effects of pornography on normal audiences. The Board is monitoring current film trends in these areas in order to inform the public and respond to their concerns. The Board will continue its liaison with other Canadian and International jurisdictions through correspondence and conferences to gain perspective and to improve techniques in dealing with common issues.

In a democratic system there often exists a dichotomy between the desire for unlimited freedom of expression and a concern about preserving the quality of life supported by the majority. In the application of our mandate we (like many other jurisdictions) attempt to strike that balance which preserves the best of both.

Film Classification and Censorship

Under the Theatres Act, all films for public exhibition are reviewed, classified and approved or rejected by the Board whose objectives are:

- the careful classification of films to protect children from premature exposure to material which could be harmful;
- ensuring that all films on public screens reflect the level of tolerence of the Ontario Community;
- providing information on film content to the theatre-going public.

Role of The Board

Makeup of the Board: The Board is comprised of members who represent a cross-section of the community in age, philosophy, background, lifestyle and ethnic origin.

Contact with the community: Open meetings and community contact with university and high school students, community associations and special interest groups are a priority of the Board and allow an assessment and monitoring of community values and concerns. These are reflected in Board guidelines for screening films. In 1982-83, 7,583 individuals were contacted.

Publication of guidelines: The Board's guidelines, or perception of community standards, are available to the public. They are regularly reviewed and reassessed according to input received from the community.

Use of Standard procedures: Standard procedures for screening and classification are in use as well as a formal reporting system which details the decisions on each film and the reasons for them.

Open records: Information on any decision of the board is available to the public on request. This includes the reasons for rejections or for eliminations in films.

Procedures for Screening

With the exception of certain art and festival films which may be dealt with by separate procedure, the approval of films is the responsibility of a rotating Board which screens in panels of five to seven people.

Using Board guidelines, each screening member makes individual notes, beginning with the assumption that a film is Family until some scene or dialogue places it in a more mature category. Scenes which seem to contravene community standards of tolerance are considered in the context of the film and noted.

Guidelines for Classification and Censorship

At a meeting of a quorum of the Board, personal reports from the screening members are tabled and discussed and a decision is made on the film.

Recommendations on classification, warnings and eliminations must always be a majority decision.

An appeal from a decision of the Board may be made if the person submitting the film requests a written review of that decision or asks to meet with the Board to present his or her case. The appeal will be dealt with by a totally different panel from the original one and its decision is final.

Guidelines for Classification and Censorship

Films are classified and censored to reflect the level of tolerance indicated by the community standards of the Ontario public. In Ontario there are four designations within the classification system:

Family
Films suitable for all.

Parental Guidance
Parents are advised that theme or content may be more mature than "family" films. However, children are permitted unsupervised access and the decision of film suitability lies entirely with the parents. Films in this category may contain limited violence, such as hand-to-hand fighting, the use of weapons without excessive bloodletting, restrained portrayal of accident or disaster. They may also contain scenes involving very brief or casual nudity, romantic involvement which is not sexually explicit. Mild use of coarse or vulgar language.

Adult Accompaniment:
Restricted to 14 and over unless accompanied by an adult. (Suitable for 14 and over). Theme or content may be more mature and in the opinion of the Board not suitable for most children 13 and under. Films in this category may contain limited nudity and sexual involvement. There may also be sexual innuendo, suggestive or vulgar dialogue, coarse allusion and offensive language. There may be a higher degree of violence including bloodletting. Violence and nudity will not be gratuitous but should be integral to the plot.

Restricted:
Admittance limited to those of 18 years and over. Films may become restricted if they contain scenes of heavy violence, torture, or abuse, extremely graphic depiction of accident or horror, full nudity, sexual activity or undue use of offensive languagge. Films which promote controversial or antisocial lifestyles might also be restricted depending on format and force of presentation.

Eliminations
Each film is judged on its own merits. However, very graphic or prolonged scenes of violence, torture, bloodletting; explicit portray of sex/violence eg. rape, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation of children, explicit portrayal of sexual activity, undue or prolonged emphasis on genitalia and ill-treatment of animals would normally be considered to contravene community standards and are scenes for which eliminations would normally be requested.

Reasons for Rejection
Instances of rejection of an entire film are very rare and would normally occur only where required eliminations were so extensive as to ruin the continuity of the film or where a child is sexually exploited.

Although language code is generally set aside for Restricted classifications, extremes in dialogue or vocabulary are a concern.

Guidelines are under continual reassessment and review.

Information Pieces
To assist the public in informed selection of film entertainment, information pieces or warnings are often required in film advertising. Standard information pieces used by Theatres Branch include:

Mature Language
Swearing
Coarse Language
Violence
Occasional Violence
Brutal Violence
Sexual Violence
Sexual Innuendo
Explicit Sex
Casual Nudity
Explicit Nudity
Controversial Lifestyle
Drugs
Alcohol
Frightening Scenes
Not Suitable for Children
May Offend Religious Beliefs
Horror

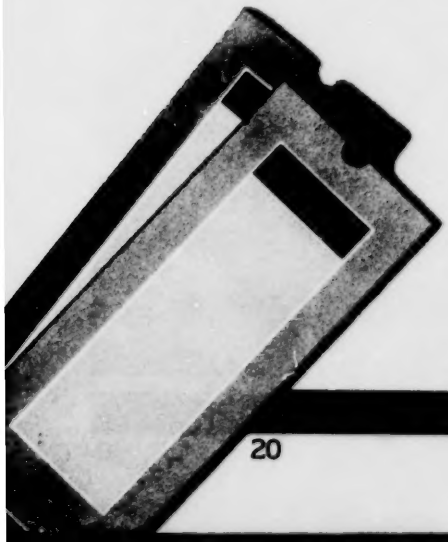
Inspections

Premises in which films are exhibited are visited regularly by Theatres Branch inspectors to ensure public safety, observance of age requirements, the accuracy of all classifications, information on film advertising and the acceptable standard of all films in public exhibition.

There has never been a serious accident or death in an Ontario theatre; infractions in all areas are promptly corrected through the growing spirit of co-operation between inspection staff and theatre management.

Specific duties include two complete inspections and several spot checks for 400 theatres each year, the regular overseeing of videotape exhibition in bars and lounges, and the monitoring of special exhibits and venues.

Since the inspection function has only recently returned to Theatres Branch, figures are available only for the first three months (January-March 1983) during which period two inspectors were trained and have completed 277 theatre inspections, correcting 14 major and 87 minor violations of the Theatres Act. They have met with representatives of several newspapers in the province to encourage and advise on accurate classifications and warnings on film advertising. They have strengthened existing rapport with the film industry.



Financial Report 1982-83

Theatres Branch is essentially self-supporting. Revenue accruing from the licensing of theatres, exchanges, projectionists and projection equipment as well as from fees for review and classification of films totals 95% of the Branch expenditures for 1982-83.
